1. Definitions and Interpretation

1.1 "Agreement" means the applicable Study Space legal document in which this definition appears, including its schedules and appendices.

1.2 "Founder" means the individual identified as founder, owner, project lead, lead architect, final decision maker, commercial decision maker, and repository administrator for Study Space unless a later signed written agreement states otherwise.

1.3 "Contributor" means a trusted volunteer collaborator granted access to the Study Space repository or confidential project materials to contribute code, documentation, design, testing, planning, research, or related work.

1.4 "Project" means Study Space, including all current and future software, source code, documentation, designs, databases, configurations, architecture, services, APIs, plugins, applications, websites, brands, roadmaps, and related materials.

1.5 "Repository" means any Git repository, issue tracker, package registry, deployment console, documentation workspace, or related development system used for Study Space.

1.6 "Project Materials" means all code, documentation, designs, architecture diagrams, database schemas, templates, prompts, roadmaps, tests, configuration files, deployment scripts, and related work product created for or supplied to Study Space.

1.7 "Confidential Information" means non-public information concerning Study Space, including source code, architecture, credentials, security posture, user information, business plans, roadmaps, financial information, founder strategy, and contributor discussions.

1.8 "Pre-Existing IP" means technology, tools, libraries, snippets, templates, workflows, inventions, know-how, or other intellectual property owned or controlled by a party before contribution to Study Space or independently developed outside the Project.

1.9 "Open Source Software" means third-party software distributed under a license permitting use, copying, modification, or redistribution under stated conditions, including permissive, copyleft, source-available, and public-domain-equivalent materials.

1.10 "Personal Data" means information relating to an identified or identifiable person, including user account data, profile data, study records, messages, logs, identifiers, and authentication-related metadata.

1.11 "Assigned Rights" means all rights, title, and interest in Contributions, including copyrights, database rights, design rights, inventions, discoveries, trade secrets, documentation rights, and related claims.

1.12 "Contribution" means any work product created, authored, designed, invented, selected, arranged, reduced to practice, documented, committed, submitted, discussed, or delivered for Study Space.

1.13 Headings are for convenience and do not affect interpretation.

1.14 References to the Project include future versions, modules, integrations, deployment environments, mobile applications, desktop applications, APIs, plugin systems, and successor products.

1.15 A reference to writing includes a signed electronic agreement, repository policy acknowledged in writing, or other legally recognized electronic record approved by the Founder and counsel.

1.16 If there is a conflict between this document and mandatory law, mandatory law controls, and the affected clause should be narrowed rather than invalidating the entire document.

2. Assignment Terms

1. Present Assignment

1.1 The Contributor presently assigns to the Founder all Assigned Rights in each Contribution to the maximum extent permitted by law.

1.2 The assignment includes source code, tests, migrations, documentation, UI, database schemas, prompts, architecture, APIs, plugin concepts, designs, logos, branding concepts, and derivative works.

1.3 The assignment applies whether the Contribution is merged, rejected, modified, refactored, rewritten, deployed, commercialized, or abandoned.

2. Future Inventions and Derivative Works

2.1 The Contributor assigns future inventions and derivative works created for Study Space during the contribution relationship.

2.2 The Contributor shall promptly disclose potentially patentable or registrable inventions to the Founder.

2.3 The Founder may register, maintain, enforce, license, sell, or abandon assigned rights without further approval.

3. Moral Rights

3.1 To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Contributor waives moral rights, droit moral, attribution claims, integrity objections, and similar rights in Contributions.

3.2 Where waiver is not permitted, the Contributor consents to modification, integration, publication, non-attribution, and commercial use.

3.3 Counsel should tailor this clause for applicable law.

4. Pre-Existing IP

4.1 The Contributor retains disclosed Pre-Existing IP not specifically assigned.

4.2 The Contributor shall list all Pre-Existing IP in Schedule 2 before contributing it.

4.3 If approved Pre-Existing IP is embedded in Study Space, the Contributor grants a perpetual, irrevocable, worldwide, royalty-free, sublicensable license for Study Space to use, modify, distribute, commercialize, and create derivatives.

5. Third-Party Materials

5.1 The Contributor shall not include third-party code, assets, datasets, fonts, models, templates, or snippets unless approved under the Open Source Policy.

5.2 The Contributor represents that Contributions do not knowingly infringe third-party rights and are not subject to undisclosed employer, school, client, or platform obligations.

5.3 AI-generated material must be disclosed if material to ownership, licensing, or provenance.

6. Further Assurances

6.1 The Contributor shall sign documents and provide assistance reasonably required to confirm, register, protect, or enforce assigned rights.

6.2 If the Contributor cannot be reached, the Contributor appoints the Founder as attorney-in-fact solely to execute documents necessary to perfect the assignment, subject to counsel review for enforceability.

Legal Review Notes

1. Some jurisdictions require specific consideration for assignment; counsel should confirm.
2. Patent assignment language may need tailoring if patentable inventions are expected.
3. If contributors are students or employees elsewhere, confirm no institutional/employer IP claim.
